No 2,854—Eleventh Year, BUENOS AYRES FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 17, 1871. Circulation, 3000.

MAUA BANK,

101—103 CALLE CANGALL

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank :—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of chequees, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given to the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 10 a.m till 3 p.m.

MIXTURA PARA TERCIANAS DE JAYNE,
A CERTAIN AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, &c.

This class of diseases, so common in all parts of the world, and especially prevalent in malarious districts and vicinage of water courses are almost invariably accompanied by more or less derangement of the liver, and frequently by a defective action of the digestive organs

The mere breaking of the Chill is but a step towards completing a radical cure. The various organs of the body, especially the stomach and liver, must be brought to a healthy and vigorous condition before a permanent cure can be established, and this fact has been specially kept in view by Dr. Jayne in his treatment of these complaints. The use of Jayne's Ague Mixture in conjunction with the Sanative Pills, as prescribed in the directions which accompany each bottle, will not only

Break up the Chills,

But restore the system more particularly the liver and stomach, to a sound condition, and so prevent a relapse of Fever and Ague, by thoroughly

Eradicating the Dissase,

And the best evidence of this is the invariable success which has always followed the administration of these remedies, as attested by the certificates published annually in Dr. Jayne's Almanac, and the wide-spread popularity of the Ague Mixture in those districts of the United States, where the diseases, for which it is adapted, most prevail.

All Dr. D. Jayne's Family Medicines are prepared only at 242 Chestnut-street, Philadelphia, and are sold by Druggtets everywhere.]

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband the small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

THE TRUE
THEORY OF PURGATION,
Applied to the Liver, Kidneys, Skin, Stomach, and Bowels.

DR. RADWAY'S
Perfect
PURGATIVE PILLS,
Perfectly tasteless—Elegantly Coated.

'Materia Medica' contains, in its repertoire, many purgative and cathartic agents that, for ordinary purposes, opens the bowels, and through what is called a 'perisaltic' movement, purges from the alimentory canal the fæces, and this is all. Such agents, for the purpose of cure, or removel of any settled cure, are perfectly useless.

Dr. Radway has completed one of the most essential discoveries in medical chemistry—in the combination of vegetable substances, for the purpose of a Purgative, Aperiant, Counter-irritant, Alterative Pill, that can be taken or administered with the absolute certainty of securing thorough evpulsion of all decayed and decomposing element of the human body, and also safe to take in the most malignant of Eruptive Fevers. In cases where the mucuous membranes of the internal viscera are suffering from Ulceration, Inflammation, or from

LIVER
Gastric, Biliary, Pancreatic Complaints,
Dr. RADWAY'S PILLS
Supply the only Vegetable substitute for
CALOMEL OR MERCURA.

In Radway's Pills you have one medicine that will secure quicker, more thorough and better results than will be gived in from three or more different prescriptions of the medical practitioner. As a proof of this—You are seized with a bilious attack! Doctor prescribes blue pills or calomel. Next, come drastic aloetic pill or powders, to work off the effects of the blue pills this prostrates you, and a tonic is next given, to a gentle aperiant, whereas one dose of Radway's Pills will do all the work that the three or more prescriptions are given for, without running any risk from mecurialising or salivating the system.

Radway's Pills.

In Radway's Pills the true principle of purgation is secured—not alone to the office of dismissing the fæces and excrements from the bowels, but these rumors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Skin, Kidneys, Lungs, and all excreting and secreting functions; for if these excrementatious secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, are interrupted in their escape, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the living body through their proper channels; hence the purgative qualities of Radway's Pills extend to the secretions of the Skin, Kidneys, Diver, &c.; whereas not one of the advertised Pills claim to act beyond the bowels.

How to take Radway's Pills.

Their daily use.

In doses of one or two pills, by all persons of a full habit of body, subject to giddiness, rush of blood to the head, palpitation of the heart, and all those subject to fits, will not only keep the blood from becoming congested or clogged up in the blood vessels, but will equalise its circulation, and prevent sudden attacks of apoplexy, disease of the heart, congestion. Persons who will take one of these Pills every day will not suffer from Head-aches, Dizziness, Hysterics, Fainting Spells, Pains about the Heart, and a hundred other disagreeable symptoms.

DYSPEPSIA

One of Radway's Pills, two or three hours before dinner, taken daily, will keep the system free from Dyspepsia, Constipation, Costiveness, &c. &c.

Bear in Mind,

Radway's Pills are the only purgative that will secure an alterative, diuretic, sudorific, aperiant, and tonic influence.

They are the only vegetable substitutes Calomel or Mercury

They promote the secretion of bile, and withdraw it from the circulation.

They assist, through their nutritous propeties, the chyme and chyle, and gastric juices in the process of digestion.

THE EASTERN ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

Another important question between the Argentine Government and a railway concessionaire has arisen, involving almost the same issues as those which led to the Central Argentine Railway dispute, with this difference, that whilst in the present case there has been very little capital as yet sunk, and the injury to the shareholders of the Eastern Argentine Railway can probably be limited to a small amount, in the Central Argentine Railway the road was built, opened to the public, and running for public traffic before any attempts to disturb prior arrangements were made by the government in the matter.

The history of the present case is simply this:—The Argentine Government last year granted to Mr. Peter Moutravel a concession (which we have already published), for the construction of what is called the Eastern Argentine Railway. Mr. Montravel, with that concession in his pocket, started for Europe, launched a joint stock English company called the Eastern Argentine Railway Company (Limited), to whom he sold the concession for £8,000 stg. cash, and £28,000 stg. in shares. The statutes of the new company were carefully drawn up, and sent to Mr. Frank Parish, the resident director of the company here, for approval by the government. Two decrees were published by the government approving of them, as also the contractor's contract. Then it was intimated to Mr. Parish that the company should be inscribed in the Registro Publico, according to law, and for this purpose Mr. Parish had to send to the Government House the papers, all translated into Spanish, with a petition for the necessary order from the minister. Sr. Dominguez at once forwarded the papers to the Attorney-General for his opinion. Dr. F. Pico, who fills that post, read the papers through, and gave the following opinion:—

"1st—That it appears that Montravel sold the concession for £8,000 cash and £28,000 in shares, in all £36,000 stg. This sum will doubtless figure in the company's books as part of the cost of the road; but as the government charged nothing for the concession it is not bound to recognize this sum as a portion of the amount over which the government guarantees the interest.

"2nd—The deed of transfer very materially alters the terms of the concession, which was granted to a party resident in the Republic, and domiciled in Buenos Ayres. Now the empresario is a joint stock company formed in London, with an expensive board of directors in England; the books and accounts will be kept in English, and in pounds, shillings, and pence, and the company, although the railway exists in this Republic, will be compelled to pay income tax to the British government.

"These questions ever give rise to ugly disputes similar to those now pending with the Central Argentine Railway. Then again, the high salaries to directors, over which we have not the least control; for at a distance of two thousand leagues it is impossible to inspect the management. Also the fluctuations in the rates of exchange amount to something considerable, and which have to be made good by the guarantee. All these conspire to render the position of Argentine shareholders in such companies intolerable. When the Central Argentine Railway Company was organized, I had hoped to avoid all these difficulties by demanding that the legal domicile of the company should be in this Republic, as this would import that the directors of the company would permanently reside here. But it is seen that the English did not see things in this light, and all they have done is to name a resident director to represent the company here. It is now necessary to be more explicit, and before the deed of transfer by Montravel is duly registered to adopt all necessary precautions to protect the fiscal rights and the good administration of the proposed railway.

"Under these circumstances, I am of opinion that your Excellency, previous to approving of this transfer, should insist that the Government, neither for the purpose of the guarantee nor for expropriation, shall be bound to recognise the price for which the concession has been sold; that the board of directors must reside in this Republic, and here also the accounts of the company must be kept in the currency of the country, and here the dividends paid.

"(Signed) FRANCIS PICO."

The Argentine Government, acting upon this opinion of its Attorney-General, has published the following decree:—

Department of the Interior,
Buenos Ayres, November 10, 1870.

In accordance with the opinion of the Attorney-General, the deed of transfer executed by Sr. Montravel is hereby ratified and approved, upon the following conditions and stipulations:

1st. That the Argentine Government does not, nor never will, recognize as a part of the capital of the Ergentine Railway Company neither the sum of £8000 cash or £28,000 in shares, which said Company paid to Montravel for the sale of the concession which the Government granted gratuitously, and therefore if the Government is called upon to make good the guarantee of 7 per cent., such sums shall not be included in an estimate of the cost of the road, nor in case the Government should think proper to expropriate the line.

Also the £2700 in shares which the company offers to Montravel on the conclusion of the second section of the road shall be included in the same category.

2. That inasmuch as this company is Argentine, its legal residence must be in Buenos Ayres, or some other city of the Republic, and there the board of directors shall meet and keep their books in the Spanish language, in patacons at the rate of 16 to the gold ounce, paying in the same place the dividends, which shall be free of all foreign tax or imposts.

Upon these conditions, and first having received the assent of the resident director of the company, the Government will recognise the deed of transfer as solicited, and let the necessary deeds be drawn up at the office of the Government Solicitor.

SARMIENTO.

LUIS L. DOMINGUEZ.

The real meaning of the above document is, that henceforward no more English joint-stock railway companie can be formed in London to build railways in this Republic. Mr. Pico evidently believes that there is sufficient capital in this country for all these enterprises, and that it is unnecessary to go abroad to look for money or shareholders. The Government seems to be fully of Mr. Pico's opinion. There is now an end to the Eastern Argentine Railway Company, and English contractors and engineers who have to seek a Government guarantee to carry out an enterprise may pack up at once and leave by the next packet.

To our view, the decree is the most suicidal measure the Government could adopt. Yet the foreign investing public lose nothing by the Minister showing his hand, and playing trumps so long as fortune has given him the lead.

COUNT BENEDETTI'S VINDICATION.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Count Benedetti's pamphlet, "Ma Mission en Prusse," which has just been published, is the first important document contributed to the history of the late war. M. Benedetti has been ridiculed, not only by the Press, but by statesmen, including the present Lord Dalling, for his innocence and blindness in not detecting the plans of Prince Bismarck, and for not informing the French Government.

The despatches which M. Benedetti quotes are a complete refutation of the opinions formed to the discredit of the French diplomatist. He traces the history of the circumstances that led to the war from the Schleswig-Holstein question in 1856-57, and the appearance in the political arena of M. Bismarck, who, like all men who succeed, became little by little possessed of one dominant idea. His idea was to realize the political aspirations of his age and fellow-countrymen—the unity of Germany—which Napoleon had the folly to oppose. To do Bismarck justice, it appears from M. Benedetti's own confession that the Prussian statesman made a frank avowal of his intentions, and suggested to France to seek compensation in French-speaking provinces.

M. Benedetti here alludes to a rectification on the French frontiers on the Moselle and on the borders of Luxembourg, without any special reference to Belgium: and, at all events, M. Bismarck gave him to understand that neither the King nor the German people would yield any of the Rhenish provinces.

From before the war with Austria in 1866 to the eve of the Franco-German war, France was thoroughly well advised by her diplomatist as to the feelings of the German people, the designs of the German statesmen, and the organized preparations for all eventualities in case France should endeavour to thwart the attempt to realize the federation of Germany under one sceptre. Meanwhile the French Emperor, who, according to M. Benedetti, had from the very beginning erred in refusing to co-operate with England on behalf of Denmark, continued his vacillating policy and allowed Austria to be humiliated at Sadowa, and threw Italy into the arms of Prussia by opposing Italian unity, and yet without striking a blow in one or other direction.

Mr. Benedetti scarcely names his imperial master, and much less does he overtly accuse him. But we cannot read the intensely interesting vindication of the diplomatist without confirming opinions previously expressed that the Emperor Napoleon, still waiting on destiny, did not want the war at the particular season when he made it, and that it was adroitly forced on him by Prince Bismarck, who saw in the temporary isolation of France and the weakness of the Olivier Ministry a favorable moment for striking the final blow—a blow by no means unprovoked; as, immediately after the battle of Sadowa, France had made a demand for territorial compensation, including Mayence; and though she receded from her demands, her attitude on the Luxemburg question and the general feeling of the French people were conclusive as to her ultimate designs.

That the Emperor Napoleon blundered from first to last is now a matter of certainty. But comparing him with the more audacious and successful German, we must allow that his errors were due to amiable qualities, which are not incompatible with a nature in other respects anything but saintlike. The Emperor Napoleon possesses the political benevolence of a humanitarian and the superstition of a fatalist, tyrant and 'roué' as he has been. His socialistic instincts may, however, yet be remembered and restore him to the purple. This is not only probable, but it is considered by some a mere question of time. On the other hand, his great adversary, for the want of political sympathy and generosity, may lose his position and popularity. He also made blunders—blunders of intense unscrupulousness and rapacity. Alsace and Lorraine will yet avenge the French. In the Morning Post of last week there was a remarkable letter from Captain Maxse on this subject. The papers are full of anecdotes illustrating the deadly hatred to the Germans manifested by the people in the newly acquired provinces.

The Liberals in Germany, who are recovering from their military intoxication, know this, and would be very content with Strasbourg and the Rhine.

In his despatches to the Duke de Gramont, Count Benedetti completely disposes of all the sensational accounts given of his rudeness to the Prussian King. He never addressed him in the public walk on political affairs, nor did he receive the rebuff from that monarch which was so universally reported. On the contrary, in his interviews with the King, instead of exceeding his instructions, he never acted up to them. Justly appreciating the unpleasant position in which his Majesty was placed, and hoping that he might accomplish his object by suavity of manner, he submitted with patience to every request for delay, and ultimately succeeded in obtaining the aim of his mission.

M. Benedetti's explanation of the manner in which he was tricked by Bismarck into writing down his propositions for the cession of Belgium—which he afterwards so dishonorably used to create an unfavorable opinion against France, is the same as he has given before, and needs no comment. It is only necessary to say, in conclusion, that he has clearly proved in his defence, from official documents, whose authenticity can be easily ascertained, that throughout the negotiations in which he was engaged with Prussia, he discharged his duties towards his country in an able and conscientious manner, and that, instead of provoking the war which has inflicted such misery and degradation on France, he invariably exerted all his influence to avert it.

THE TRANSANDINE RAILWAY

OFF AT LAST.

Estancia Calderon, 12 leagues from Bragado, Nov. 8, 1871.

Dear STANDARD,

Here we are so far on our way to the Planchon, and as there is a messenger going to-morrow with letters, I send you a few lines. We left Chivilcoy on the 30th, and after some trouble, owing to unruly animals, got fairly started on our way to Chile, and pitched our tents for the first time 3 leagues from Chivilcoy at half-past three o'clock in the afternoon. Our first night was wet and stormy, with thunder and lightning, and the next day it poured torrents of rain. We ramped again half a league from the Salado river, and remained there till next morning, as Mr. Crawford feared it would be too late by the time we got through the mud of the pass if we pushed on at once. Next day was very fine, and we passed the river without difficulty, and headquarters reached Bragado at three o'clock in the afternoon. We found good quarters at the Hotel Estrella del Oeste, but Bragado seems a place very much like the 'thriving city of Eden,' the makings of a fine town on paper. It being the first of November, I had the pleasure of seeing in a procession to the Cemetery a fine display of the 'beauty and fashion' of the place. Next day we went but one league, as we were in want of peons to replace some that had deserted, and more good cattle also. Next day we found ourselves five leagues from Bragado, and during it and the next passed some splendid camp, fine rolling prairie, as it would be called in the States, with excellent grass, and covered in many parts for miles with beautiful flowers. On the evening of the 5th we got here, where we joined the advance party.

We now number 47 Europeans at 22 native peons, besides Captain Cabrera, who is to command the escort, and whom we all like very much. He is a very good man, and thoroughly acquainted with the country we have to pass through. As yet he has but one soldier under his command, but I suppose at the next fort (Uyito) he will be joined by some more. We heard to-day that a soldier sent in from Fort Lavalle, 25 leagues from here, and in our route, reported that it was threatened by a large force of Indians. There is no doubt that we will have much to fear from them, not for ourselves directly, but that they may stampede our cattle, when we should be in a bad way. However, we shall see, and if constant watchfulness can prevent it, I am sure we are safe, for in Mr. Crawford we have a most careful and painstaking chief, and one who understands what he is about.

I went the day before yesterday to visit the 'toldos' of some tame Indians, who live in a semi-civilized manner two leagues from here. They are sufficiently civilized to have three 'pulperias' in a village where the male population counts about two hundred. One of the pulperos is a Spaniard, and has the title of alcalde. He was good enough to ask us into his house, and his wife, to whom he is only a fortnight married and who is a very pretty Basca-Francesa, served us with any amount of mate. She finds it 'muy triste' in the toldos. I was not much struck by the appearance of the 'noble red man,' who looks very much as if his face had been made, sat upon in his infancy, and his squaw is a very he woman. The chief, however, is a fine fellow, and apparently of white blood, and his name (Callaghaho) would seem to give him a claim (as I have heard it hinted) to belong to a race that has given chieftains to so many nations. To my Irish ears, it sounds uncommonly like O'Callaghan. Game, as you may suppose, is very abundant here; the deer are as numerous as in the Phœnix and almost as easy to shoot, and the venison is excellent, though the natives prefer mutton.

I am afraid we will have much trouble about water. We have to use wells here, and though we have tubular pumps, they are not suitable to every soil. To-morrow we start again, and it is now very late and the wind is flapping the tent about my ears in a way that makes it difficult to write, so adios.

Sincerely yours,

"Westward Ho."

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

PUBLIC MEETING.

It is refreshing to find, in a country so far removed from the scenes of our early youth, anything that recalls home associations and recollections of other days. It was, therefore, with pleasure that we availed ourselves of the opportunity afforded us on Tuesday evening of spending one of those pleasant hours which, fraught with fond remembrances, relieve us from the anxious cares of business, and remind us that man is capable of pursuits more noble than quarrelling with custom-house officials or 'wasting his sweetness on the desert air' of the wool markets.

We refer to the public meeting of that young but very promising institution, the Young Men's Christian Association of Buenos Ayres. Much could be said in favour of this society, were it not for fear of encroaching on your valuable time and space. We desire, however, to give a short sketch of the proceedings for the benefit of those who had not the good fortune of being present, hoping that this will induce them to profit by such opportunities in the future.

The doors were opened at 7 o'clock to admit a large but very select audience of more than three hundred persons, and at 7½ the proceedings were opened with prayer by the president of the association, the Rev. Mr. Jackson; after which an anthem was sung by the choir, under the able management of Mr. Brown. This was followed by an address by the Rev. Mr. Jackson, in which he made some very appropriate remarks specially with reference to the aims and objects of the association and the valuable services rendered by its members during the late epidemic.

After this our worthy Consul, Mr. Clapp, read two beautiful poems, which we consider very fair specimens of American poetry, on which he made some very suggestive remarks. Next came a Spanish oration by Sr. Estols, who selected as his subject the doctrine of the Pantheists, showing in a very able discourse the absurdity of their notions and the great advantages possessed by the Christian religion over all others.

Then came a declamation by Mr. Leslie, whom we have to thank on the part of our Scotch friends for having chosen the poem 'Man was made to Mourn' as his subject. He declaimed it in a masterly style, proving himself beyond all doubt a countryman of the immortal bard. This was followed by an essay on the same subject by Mr. White, who proved to our satisfaction that man was not made to mourn; and we are of opinion that this is much more in accordance with prevailing notions, despite the beauty of the poem.

After this Mr. Manson declaimed a beautiful Spanish poem on the death of our Saviour; and this was followed by another anthem, in which the fair singers placed us under renewed obligations, and proved themselves once more worthy of the respect and admiration of all judges of really good music.

Then came a soul-stirring address in Spanish by Mr. Miguez, who did ample justice to the goddess 'Libertad.' The subject was very appropriate, and judging by the applause with which it was greeted, it was very well received by the audience. But it was well they were called upon to applaud; for immediately afterwards their powers of cheering were forcibly called into requisition by a splendid declamation by Mr. H. Martin (formerly of Standard Court), during which we had but to close our eyes in order to find ourselves successively amongst the wild mountain scenery of Old Ireland (in 1798), in the dreadful dock of a court of justice of the same period, before an antiquated judge of Hibernian origin, hearing the plaintive remonstrances and heart-rending entreaties of an aged mother, as she sees the judge assume the awful black cap in order to condemn her son; on the scaffold, exciting the mingled commiseration and admiration of the unsoaped; and in an exciting chase after an escaped 'ribbon-man.' Mr. Martin sustained all these various characters to perfection, and drew upon himself the most deafening applause, proving to the satisfaction of all his indisputable claim to be O'Connell's countryman.

Then, as a suitable contrast to the foregoing, the Rev. Dr. Rial read a very well written essay on the Books of Moses; it was quite anti-Colenzoist in its teaching, and manifested an intimate acquaintance with the sacred writings on the part of the learned Doctor.

The last anthem was then sung by the choir, by which our unbounded admiration was again excited and our ears delighted.

After which came the discussion by Messrs. Miguez and Tallon, the question for debate being—'Does the Pulpit or the Bar afford the better field for eloquence?'

Mr. Tallon defended the pulpit, and in a very eloquent harangue portrayed the inestimable good for which we are indebted to the pulpit, arguing because of this, that great eloquence must have been necessary in order to accomplish so much. He presented other very good arguments besides.

Mr. Miguez then made a very good speech on the advantages afforded by the Bar as a field for the development of oratorical powers.

Both gentlemen referred to each other during the debate in the most friendly spirit, and both presented very good arguments in support of their positions, and received from the audience the greatest marks of approval. So we suppose they may divide the palm between them.

The meeting was closed by singing the Doxology, 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow,' and we retired to our homes feeling that we had an unexpected blessing for which to praise the great Giver of all Good, and hoping the Young Men's Association will be encouraged by the great success of this meeting to afford us many similar occasions of pure enjoyment and unalloyed pleasure.

EARTHQUAKES IN SALTA.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Further intelligence of the late disastrous earthquake in Salta was received yesterday. On the 22nd October at 11 o'clock p.m., when most of the inhabitants of the doomed town of Oran had retired to their houses, the first shock was felt. The greatest terror at once prevailed, and the people rushed madly into the streets: few had gone to bed, as for hours before a dull rumbling noise had been heard in the distance, and all feared that it portended some unusual catastrophe. The shocks continued at intervals for nearly nine hours, during which time 40 distinct movements of the earth were felt. The pavement of the streets was split open, now here now there, and the houses fell in confused heaps of ruins. There is only one death to record, that of Sr. Reyes, and some contusions to other parties. Most of the inhabitants rushed out to the camp after the first shock, and so saved their lives, but the town of Oran may be considered as totally destroyed.

Oran, Oct. 23, 1871.

Sir,

I write in sorrow and alarm to request that you will inform H. E. the Governor of the Province that the town of Oran has disappeared, nothing remaining of it but ruins. The earthquake shocks commenced at 11 o'clock last night, and continued till 8 o'clock this morning. Thirty-eight or forty shocks were felt in all, and it is feared that more will follow. The unfortunate inhabitants are on their knees imploring the mercy of the Almighty.

The losses and injuries to persons are not yet known accurately, but everything is being done to discover if any persons have been crushed by the fallen houses or are beneath them.

H.E. the Governor must excuse my not sending him a longer report, as I am busy aiding the sufferers and have only time for this short note.

God preserve you.

Hilarion Carrasco.

To the Secretary-General of the Provincial Government.

P.S.—It is now known to a certainty that only one person has been killed, a son of the late Don Miguel Reyes, and a few others slightly injured, all the rest of the inhabitants being saved as if by a miracle.

Private letters from Dn. Julio Aguirre to his father, of the same date as Mr. Carrasco's, state that the whole town disappeared in ten seconds, not a stone remaining on a stone. The inhabitants are huddled together without anything to shelter them from the burning rays of the sun, and apprehensive of fresh shocks every moment. There were two persons killed. Mr. Aguirre had only left his dwelling a few seconds when it tumbled like a house of cards.

News has been received from Jujuy to the effect that the earthquake was felt there with fearful violence, and that a volcano has burst forth in eruption, and it is feared that subterranean movements may be expected along the whole line of the Andes.

The people of Salta are making the noblest efforts to relieve the sufferers.

A VOICE FROM THE PRISON.

Island of Liberty Prison, Oct.

Gentlemen:

I now take this opportunity of writing to you, hoping you will excuse the liberty I am taking. I have been in prison for fifteen months, and have not a single friend in this country. My case is as as follows: I am am one of the late crew of the Boby-Cito, of Liverpool, and for the unfortunate and deplorable death of the Captain of that vessel I have been for the last fifteen months here, without clothes, tobacco, or shoes to wear, having left all my clothes on board when they put me in prison at Fray Bentos. Still I do not mind the loss of them and my wages, but being in this place for such a length of time is worse than all, and for nothing, as I never killed the Captain, nor did I know who did before the next morning. It is sufficient to tell you that if I were guilty I would be out of here long before now, like the other two who were in here along with me, and were taken out for soldiers. They have offered to take me out of this likewise, but I always refused, knowing that I am innocent, and hoping they would give me justice, the same as they would get in my country. And another thing, why should I fight with the Captain, he being an apprentice with me in the same employ, and an old shipmate; and it was at his express wish that I shipped with him in London, and stayed on the vessel in Cardiff when the other crew that he shipped in London ran away. The second mate and the Captain's wife belong to the same town as I do. There is a great mistake about me; the only one I can blame is the mate, as he and I were never good friends, he being jealous of the friendship that existed between the Captain and myself. I do not know any reason, more than that when they were fighting I was asleep, but when the shot was fired it woke me up; I went out to see what was the matter, and upon seeing a man lying on the deck I took him into the forecastle, and did not come out again.

Gentlemen, I write this to you hoping that you will intercede as far as you can to get me at liberty, as I am here without a friend to speak for me, or anyone to give me a shift of clothes.

Hoping that you will give this a considerate perusal, and likewise the smallest answer, if convenient to do so, I remain,

Your humble servant,

STEPHEN FROST,
(Late of barque Boby Cito, of Liverpool.)

P.S.—I have written to the Consul two or three times without getting any answer.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Transandine Railway Expedition is at last fairly 'en route.' We publish in another column an account of its progress so far, received yesterday. Our correspondent with the expedition had a remarkable meeting with an Irish Indian who is chief of a friendly tribe near Bragado. The prospects of the expedition seem highly satisfactory, the only apprehension being that water may fail when they reach the Pampas. Mr. Crawford, however, is reported to be confident of ultimate success.

We had a letter yesterday from Mr. Starkweather on the "Cordoba Scandal" in which he was an actor; it shall appear as soon as we can find space for it. We hear from "our own Correspondent" in "the city of the doctors" that our colleagues there continue to write violent diatribes on the interesting subject. A suit is said to be pending in the Criminal Court against Mr. Starkweather, but it is also rumoured that the occurrence has been referred to the diplomatic agent of the United States Government, and that there is every probability of the unpleasant affair being arranged and withdrawn from public notice.

The mole head presented an animated appearance yesterday morning when a large batch (some 50 or 60) of apparently well to do Italians embarked for their sunny native shores. Though humble they had not the appearance of returning emigrants, but rather of parties with money in the bank, and probably house property, returning to Europe for a 'paseo.' As two large whaleboats full of them pushed off from the pier there was much weeping and gesticulation by "the girls they left behind them;" one departing Romeo "piled on the agony" so heavily that he forgot the necessity of attending to his sea legs, and nearly fell into the river, a burly Calabrian friend

A member of our staff picked up in Calle San Martin yesterday a Morroco leather pocket book containing $91 m|c., a photographer's bill, pencil, a card, and a letter from France. The owner can have it by applying at our office and paying expenses.

The police now tolerate a most disagreeable nuisance in the most fashionable quarters at night, when crowds of ladies are shopping, and the streets filled with promenaders. We allude to the sickly, lame and blind beggars who squat themselves on the footpaths at the corners of Calles Victoria, Florida and other fashionable resorts, grinding doleful airs on hand organs, to excite public compassion. This nuisance has lately been imported from Europe, and we trust the police will at once put it down.

An English contemporary announces that Prince Bismarck has demanded from the French Government £6,000,000 sterling to be paid on the 1st March, 1872, for 'interest' at the rate of five per cent. per annum on £120,000,000 still remaining due of the French war indemnity.

Pepper's Ghost will make its bow to the Buenos Ayrean world to-morrow night at the Coliseum: the performance is well worth a visit from those who have never seen it, and whose nerves are strong. An error occurred in Professor Holbridge's advertisement in yesterday's issue. The price of admission to the reserved seats is only THIRTY dollars, not eighty as published. Who would not see a ghost for $30 m|c!

Recent statistical returns show that between the years 1862—1871 the population of Italy has increased upwards of a million, despite a large and steady flow of emigration to South America.

We remind all our readers who love classical music that the German Singing Academy form the choir this evening on the occasion of the inauguration of the new organ at the German Church. The programme contains some of the choicest productions of Mendelssohn, Rossini, Schubert, and other composers, which will be interpreted by the best singers of the Academy. The concert commences at eight o'clock precisely.

News from Australia, our great competitor in the wool trade, state that the last accounts received from the pastoral districts are of a favourable nature. Cattle were everywhere reported healthy and in good condition. Flocks were, however, in some districts suffering from foot-rot. Lambing has been attended with full average results, preparations being made for shearing in August.

A correspondent, writing from Mendozr, states that the approach of summer is causing the people of that city some uneasiness, as the hydraulic works raised to protect the town and surrounding country from inundations from the mountains are not considered sufficient or safe. Building is going on at a brisk rate in Mendoza; the new Bank and Theatre are said to be magnificent piles. Governor Villanueva continues very popular in consequence of the reforms he has introduced in all public departments, chiefly in that of education.

Captain Crossman, one of the proprietors in the Sierra Quartz Crushing Company, arrived in town yesterday from Cordoba bringing some splendid specimens of gold from the mines, the working of which, we understand, is progressing favourably.

Visitors to the Tigre should not miss inspecting two beautiful iron clipper schooners lately sent from England to Mr. Anacharsis Lanus, and intended for the Valparaiso trade. They are twins, and as pretty models as ever came to the Plate.

The coal exported from the United Kingdom during 1871 has averaged over one million tons per month.

We were accidentally prevented from attending Sr. Rossi's interpretation of Macbeth at the Colon Theatre on Tuesday evening, so are unable to furnish our readers with a personal opinion of the performance. We hear it very highly spoken of, however, by friends who were present. During the second act of the tragedy great excitement was created in the house by what seemed to be a tussle in one of the grated, lower boxes. Faint screams in feminine treble were mingled with the noise of chairs tumbling about, &c. Some of the spectators rushed to the box, but on opening it the fair birds previously seen in the cage alone had flown. A gay cavalier's glove found in the box leads to the supposition that there was a coat in the case in addition to the petticoats.

Respecting the proposed tunnel under the Channel from Dover to Calais Mr. Remington, a C.E. of considerable experience, writing to the Times, says: "The tunnel can be constructed with as much ease and certainty as was experienced in the construction of the tunnel sewer under Oxford Street. Better than any tunnel would be—if they could be constructed—vessels that would not cause sea-sickness, with the railway on the French side brought down to the water's edge. If a tunnel of 25 or 30 miles be made under the sea, will passengers be disposed to travel through it; moreover, how many years would be required to execute such a work? Most of us living might be in our graves before the tunnel was opened. We should not get any advantage from it—or not many of us would derive it—while if boats or ferries of the description named were built we might be in the enjoyment of the improvement shortly."

The Government wooden huts blown down near Moron by the last storm are about to be rebuilt at the expense of the Provincial Treasury. We hear that in case the huts erected last year at San Martin for refugees from the epidemic are not required this year for a similar purpose, it is the intention of Government to let them at a moderate rent—a very good idea.

The prisoners confined in the jail at Mercedes mutinied a few days ago, and made a desperate attempt to escape, which was, happily, frustrated by the guard. Bad food is said to have been the principal cause of the 'emeute.'

A meeting is called for two o'clock this afternoon at the American Church in Calle Corrientes, to consider the best means of subscribing and forwarding aid to the sufferers by the appalling conflagration at Chicago. The American Chargé d'Affaires, Mr. Dexter Clapp, will preside. We are glad to see that the matter has been influentially taken up, and trust the subscriptions will be commensurate with the urgency of the case. 'Who gives quickly gives twice.'

The official reports to the War Office from the military commanders on the Cordoba frontier show that the late invasion and plundering must be laid at the door of the Gaucho banditti swarming about the Provinces, and not to the charge of the Indians. This makes the matter worse, and shifts much of the blame from the shoulders of the War Minister to the Government of Cordoba, which is bound to look after the internal order of the Province.

Our colleague La Tribuna, from which we took the intelligence, is responsible for the 'bola' published yesterday morning respecting an imaginary robbery in one of the Barracas Tramway carriages. The slender foundation for the story is that Police Commissary Anzo stopped the carriage at the foot of Barracas Hill, in order to arrest two individuals he was anxious to capture, and who he knew, 'from information received,' were travelling in it. He arrested them, and the car proceeded to its destination. Such are the facts kindly supplied to us yesterday by an official of the Tramway Company.

We publish in another column further particulars of the earthquakes at Oran, received yesterday. It appears that only two persons were killed. A subscription for the sufferers has been opened at the Tribuna Office.

There was a rush of fashionables yesterday to Bulrich's premises, in the front patio of Standard Court, to inspect the Abyssinian jewellery. It was not to be seen, however, for Mr. B. has registered a vow that none shall see it till the day appointed for a public inspection of it, of which due notice will be given.

There are two tramway projects by Englishmen at present before the Municipality of Quilmes. Our next door neighbour, Mr. Bate, is generally regarded as the favourite, but well informed persons assure us that even his terms, which are known to be liberal, will not pass the 'patres conscripti' of Whale Point without ample modification. The line is to connect the railway station, seven squares from the Plaza, with the river, some 2800 yds on the other side of the town. There overhanging the majestic Plate it is intended to build a large hotel (American fashion). The chief attraction will be bathing, splendid undress headers straight from bed being attainable any hour of the night or morning. In this way Montevideo will lose its greatest charm. Mr. Yankee-notion Bate and Hesperidina Bagley are building princely residences in Quilmes. With such go a-head citizens what place would not improve?

THE BONITA.

The passengers conducted hither by the fine packet-ship Bonita feel anxious to profit of your valued paper for expressing their deeply felt gratitude towards Captain S. Trott, commander of this magnificent steamer, for the exceedingly kind and generous way in which he treated them on the voyage.

Although this from different reasons became unusually long, the passengers consider themselves fortunate in having selected the Bonita, as its gentlemanly captain and obliging officers did not omit any opportunity of making the stay on board agreeable, conducting themselves the whole time in the most kind and liberal manner.

All have desired publicly to assure Captain Trott of their entire satisfaction and sincere thankfulness, proving to him, that his excellent behaviour is duly appreciated.

Several Passengers.

CITY OF BUENOS AYRES TRAMWAY.

The first dividend this Company declares is 6 per cent. per annum free of income-tax. This rate is to be paid out of earnings for the past half-year ending June 30th, 1871, but as the accounts are only made up yearly (ending December 31) the present dividend is an interim one, yet not the less acceptable for that. In the 6 months in account two circumstances have occurred highly detrimental to the dividend for the time being, yet the dividend is 6 per cent. per annum, which seems to us excellent evidence of the great value of the property. Our space is very confined this week, but let us devote a few lines to mentioning what these circumstances are, and what in the teeth of them has been accomplished in the past half-year. Yellow fever and unusually high price of provender are the two exceptional and temporary circumstances alluded to. The yellow fever swept the city of two-thirds of its inhabitants. It caused an 'almost total paralysis of business'. Need we say the business of the Tramway Company suffered in consequence, and in like manner. The yellow fever began on the 27th January and ended in the middle of June. This is a period comprising not the whole of the half-year but not very much short of it. The traffic receipts clearly show how the yellow fever operated on the interests of the Company. In January, at the end of which the yellow fever broke out, the receipts were £1,569; in May they sank dawn to £1,842; in June, in the middle of which the 'terrible epidemic' ceased, they rose up to £2,423, and in July and August they averaged as much as £815 a week, a high average for this time of short days, when the hours of daylight are but 11 against 15 in January. Indeed, to quote the words of the report just issued, the traffic is constantly improving notwithstanding the decrease in the receipts resulting from the winter season."

The extremely high price of fodder caused by drought and locusts, &c., resulted in an increase in the working expenses of no less than 16·64 per cent. The importance of this may be understood when we say that had this additional expenditure not occurred the profits would have been at least £3,000 more, which would have been above another 6 per cent. dividend, since the half-year's dividend at that rate requires £2,306! Very easily 12 per cent., instead of 6, could have been paid had fodder been at its usual figure, even in this yellow fever period. The half-year's gross receipts are £18,566; the working expenses £16,425; the profits £2,140, to which is added a small former balance of £368, making the disposable balance £2,508, out of which the half-year's dividend of 6 per cent. per annum on the fully paid-up shares of the Company is paid, absorbing £2,306, and carrying forward a small balance. These facts and circumstances appear to us to show very clearly that in ordinary times the dividends of this Company will not only be good but high—something that will remunerate one for being in other Companies in other parts of the world, where dividends are either tiny mites or nil.

Mr. Macdonnell leaves to-night for Buenos Ayres.

His withdrawal from this country is greatly approved of by the whole of the British population.

ON 'CHANGE.

Nov. 16th, 1871.

Ounces,	400
Sovereigns,	122½
Patacons,	25
National Bonds,	70⅝

The Bond market ruled somewhat weaker today. For cash there was nothing sold; for Saturday, 20,000 at 70⅝; for Nov. 30, 10,000 at 70¾. In the afternoon prices ruled somewhat firmer, and some sales in the liquidation were done at slightly improved prices. Argentine Bank shares 70 sold at 12½ prem.

The telegram from Montevideo to-day astounded the native portion of the community, although the English reading members already knew the news published in our columns this morning of the rupture of diplomatic relations between England and the Banda Oriental. The subject became the absorbing topic, and it was announced that Mr. M'Donnell, H.B.M Chargé, returns to Buenos Ayres this night.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Provincial Bank, held yesterday, it was definitively decided to open a branch in Rosario, on the Legislature sanctioning the measure. The discussion at the Board was long and animated, finally when put to the vote, there was a majority in its favor. The branch established at San Nicolas has given the most wondrous results. Started with a capital of but 4 millions, it has to-day in private deposit no less than 11 millions, whilst so beneficial has the bank proved to that town, that instead of a miserable, deserted, country village, to-day it is one of the most rising places in the province. Immense advantages to Rosario are looked forward to by this new branch, and the step meets with the most general favor in commercial circles.

From Montevideo the following—

«Sovereigns 2 premium. Coal cargo, Spirit of Day, 13 pats. 5000 E.R. hides 72. Large wool sales at reserved price. British Minister suspended diplomatic relations with Oriental Government and awaits instructions from his Government. A cargo of pine to arrive, Ellen Marion, 450,000 feet. 15½ pats., Montreal."

A coal cargo sold to-day to-day, to arrive, 720 tons at 13 pats.

There was nothing done in English or French exchange to-day. Montevidean exchange at par and ½.

Barraqueros and others in the South complain of the scandalous neglect of the authorities in allowing millions of dead fish to accumulate on the river side this morning. The stench was something horrible, almost put a stop to business down near the Lanus deposits.'

It was announced to-day that at last the new Gas Co. has been duly formed, capital subscribed, and Mr. Lloyd, an eminent engineer, left in the Douro to purchase the plant. It may be remembered that this is the company started by Sr. Riestra some months ago.

Advices from Colonia to-day report that Mr. Nemo, of the Naposta, has taken charge of the beef-preserving factory, Australian principle, which has hitherto been carried on by Mr. Scott, who has already sunk a good deal of money in the business.

The following private remarks on the English wool market were received by the last packet and may interest dealers:—

'The tone of the market generally for the last month has been marked by the striking contrast between the activity in the demand for fine wools; and the quietness ruling in the inquiry for domestic and foreign low wools. The prospects, however, for both are encouraging rather than otherwise, in spite of the rapid and great rise in their value; but it is only natural that such check as has been experienced in the low wool demand should happen, and may possibly be also felt temporarily in fine wools.

Stocks of fine wool in Europe are moderate everywhere, and there appears reason to believe that the present rate of consumption is not likely to be interfered with for the next few months, so long as no political difficulty should arise, and of this happily there should be no apprehension just at present. Some small arrivals of Santiago washed and Cordoba unwashed wool have been received and placed on the market, but the holders are not willing at present to cede these parcels except at extreme rates, while the trade are for the moment waiting for a more decided turn of affairs in the low wool market.

The Montevidean wool market is even flatter than that of Buenos Ayres, and barraqueros are looking for Buenos Ayres buyers with some anxiety. The following high testimonial respecting one of the best known Banda Oriental wools has been forwarded to us by a Montevidean subscriber:—

The Sippitt Woollen Company, of Providence, R.I., purchased last year half of the Pranchancia wool of 1870. The manager says:—"We use about 100,000lb wool in greasy per month, and this is the first Banda Oriental we have tried. The Prange wool works well, and, mixed half-and-half with American, makes a very good article of cloth. The Saxony grade is too heavy in condition to please us, and finer in grade than the very large majority of Americans need, or would be willing to pay for. The mestizo No. 1 and merino are just suited to the wants of a large class of manufacturers here, and would always find a ready market here were it not for our excessive tariff. Anything you can do to breed your wool lighter in condition, even at the expense of extra fineness, would enable you to sell more readily here, as our specific duty of 10 cents per pound tells heavily upon greasy wool. So far we think the appearance of our goods has been improved by the mixture of B. Oriental wool with our fleece, and I hope that more just revenue laws will before long open this market to you every year. A large importation of N. Zealand and Australian wools is going on now, and we and other manufacturers are using them, and find them pleasing by the fineness and strength of their staple and, above all, their great freedom from burrs. I write this, thinking you would like to hear how the Prange wool turned out, as we bought it without sample."

It was stated at the Government House this morning that the Finance Minister is about to leave for Cordoba. Money was offered the Government to-day at 8 per cent. and declined. Bills falling due are renewed at 8 per cent. or paid, but most parties renew. In the office of National Engineers a contract was signed yesterday with Mr. E. W. Edlad, C.E., for the construction of a wooden bridge over the Sotelillo, in the province of Santiago, for 35,000 m|c; the length of the bridge will be 125 metres, and the width 6 metres, the construction to be similar to that of the Saladilla. The work is an important one, confided to good hands, and the cost will be money well spent.

There was a rumour on 'Change to the effect that it is possible the Government will arrange with the Provincial Bank for all future remittances, in which case it is probable the Bank Directors will lower the rate of interest to 6 per cent. per annum.

The Eastern Argentine Railway question was much spoken of. All parties regard the decree of the Government as tantamount to a prohibition against foreign railway enterprizes in this country, which when the real state of this country is considered is a very serious political blunder. The opinion of Sr. Pico and the order of the Government thereon form a precedent now which it will be difficult to disturb in the Central Argentino Railway, the same questions were satisfactorily settled by an arrangement entered into with Dr. Rawson, the then Minister of Government, which was subsequently ratified by Congress.

On Friday 24th inst. bids will be received at the War Office for supplies to the frontier forts at Patagones and Bahia Blanca. The contract is an unimportant one. To-morrow the bids for the supply of 20,000 shirts and 20,000 'calsoncillos' to the troops will be opened at the War Office.

Official data received prove that the late terrible invasion near Santa Maria was not perpetrated by Indians, but by bands of vagrant Gauchos from Cordoba and Santa Fe. Many of the estancieros of the district have lost heavily.

The Douro took no hides, but some 500 half pipes of tallow for Rio Janeiro. The Bonita and Astarte both sail to-morrow (Friday) with full cargoes for Antwerp. Messrs. Woodgate Bros. clear both steamers. Several cargoes of salt have arrived, and prices are rather down. Shippers report freights for hides somewhat easier than last week.

ARRIVALS.

As regards the wool market to-day, the North Plaza ruled this morning more active than the South. Some 40,000 arr. sold in the Once to-day. The sale made yesterday by Mr. Duggan was ten thousand, not one hundred thousand arrobas, as through a typographical error it appeared. Mr. Burmeister sold to-day in the South market 2500 arr. at 80. Bermechea sold 2250 arr. at from 74 to 83. The South market rules flat, and wool still falling there. Matadero sheepskins are also down to 21 reales. Messrs. Peyredieu and Bradley sold—

1900 arr. prime wool at 95
7000 arr., various lots 78 to 86

The steamer Galatea, from Valparaiso, was looked for to-day, but up to the closing hour of the Bolsa she had not entered.

Mr. Naylor was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his return from Montevideo.

8000 arr.	good wool,	76
4000	do do	85
1500	do do	84
2000	do do	80
9000	do do	75
4000	do do	73
2000	do do	76
10000	do do	70 to 76

NOTICE.

A LETTER for Mr. Simons at this office.

BRAGG'S

Pure Vegetable Carbon

OR

As prepared for his

CELEBRATED CHARCOAL BISCUITS.

The remarkable and valuable properties of Vegetable Charcoal have been long known to science and the faculty for its power of deodorizing or destroying unpleasant smells, the absorption of unpleasant and unwholesome gases or vapors, and preventing decomposition of animal matter, such as meat, game, &c.; but it is only lately that it has been discovered of still greater value by the application of its peculiar properties to many of the ailments which human flesh is heir to. Since the introduction of Charcoal Biscuits and Charcoal Powder, a large number of instances can be produced to prove that in cases of Indigestion, Flatulency, Scorbutic Eruptions, Heartburn, Impurity of Breath, Gout &c., there is nothing so effectual in affording relief as those simple but safe and powerful articles, merely by neutralizing acidity and absorbing those impurities which more or less exist in the stomach, and are caused by, or are the cause of, the above-named maladies.

No person visiting the tropics or hot climates should ever travel without them.

It is perfectly free from smell and taste, either before or after mixing with water, which may be either cold or tepid.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Cc.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current We now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following he noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays an holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. p. a) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds Twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishs can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

The Globe says—

"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers, discovered the extraordinary qualities of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage." Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had CONSUMPTION—One of the greatest results of the chemical progress is the adaptation of the active property obtained from the Pancreas, and prepared as Morson's Pancreatic Emulsion and Powder. It enables the weakest stomachs to assimilate animal fat and oil, so essential to the constitution.

CHLORODYNE—Morson's celebrated Anodyne is now being supplied to the Public.

GELATINE—The purest preparation of this nutritious agent extant is Morson's.

All the above are carefully packed and shipped to orders, which must be made payable in England.

STARLING v. MILLS.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the Court of Chancery in England, made in the above Cause, William Gowen Grozier (a son of Gowen Grozier, late of Bishopwearmouth, in the County of Durham, master mariner, deceased), who was at Buenos Ayres, and also at Rio de Janeiro, South America, in the year 1863, if alive, or if he be dead, then his Widow, legal personal Representative, Heir-at-Law, and Next of Kin respectively, living at the time of his death, and the personal representatives of any such Next of Kin, who may have since died, are respectively, on or before the 14th day of January, 1872, to bring into the Chambers of the Vice-Chancellor, Sir John Wickens, No. 11 Old Square, Lincoln's-inn, in the County of Middlesex, England, legal proof of his, her, or their respective identity, and in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree.

The 25th day of January, 1872, at Twelve o'Clock, at noon, at said Chambers, is appointed for proceeding upon such proofs.

Dated this 6th day of August, 1871.

ROBERT W. PEAKE, Chief Clerk.

Note—If any person can give any information as to the said William Gowan Grozier, and if he died leaving a will, as to such will, he is requested to forthwith to communicate with Mr. Frederick Buckle, Solicitor, No. 25 Eastcheap, London, England.

HAND-WORKED FIRE ENGINES
Of every description and for all climates,
Fire Escapes, Horse and Suction Pipes, Fire Buckets, Fire Cocks, Hose Reels, Hydrants, Firemen's Equipments,
And every article connected with the Extinction of Fire.

SHAND, MASON & CO.'S Steam Fire Engines have been awarded all the Chief First Prizes, have been in use by the Metropolitan [London] Fire Brigade for sixteen years, and are found to be the most durable Engines yet constructed; also the most readily managed by inexperienced persons. The generative powers of the boiler are such that at the Preston Trials steam of 1 0-lb. was raised in six minutes and forty-five seconds.

At the great Competitive Trial of Steam Fire Engines, held at Preston, England, May, 1871, the judges, after a searching investigation, decided unanimously in favour of Shand, Mason & Co.'s engine, which was immediately purchased by the Authorities.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med. Staff)
CHLORODYNE.
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the Inventor of CHLORODYNE that the story of the Defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne, that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—The Times, July 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
REMEDIA, USES AND ACTION.

THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Cramp, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after 18 month's severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [Dec. 1865] that nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Extract from the General Board of Health-London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE, from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

KEATINGS'S COUGH LOZENGES

This universal Remedy now stands the first in public favor and confidence; this result has been acquired by the test of fifty years' experience. These Lozenges may be found on sale in every British Colony, and throughout India and China they have been highly esteemed wherever introduced. For Coughs, Asthmas, and all Affections of the Throat and Chest, they are the most agreeable and efficacious remedy; they do not contain opium or any other deleterious drug, and may therefore be taken with the most perfect safety by the most delicate constitution.

KEATING'S
CHILDREN'S WORM TABLETS.

The great remedy for these disorders in adults and children, can now be administered in the form of a purely Vegetable Sweetmeat, at once agreeable and effective.

KEATING'S INSECT DESTROYING POWDER.

The Powder is quite harmless to Animal Life, but is unrivalled in destroying Fleas, Bugs, Cockroaches, Beetles, Mosquitos, and every other species of insect. TRADE MARK.

Sold in packets, tins, and bottles of various sizes

Sold by all Chemists and Druggists.

MOCKFORD'S SULPHUR CARBOLIC ACID DIP,

An anti-poisonous preparation for applying to Sheep.

This preparation, of which the good effects are so well known and highly appreciated by the Shee-farmers in Australia, has been proved recently in this country with the most beneficial results, as will be seen by the following testimonial from the manager of one of the most important Establishments in this Province:—

"In October 1870, immediately after Shearing, I dipped all our rams, which, at the time, were in low condition and generally scabby. I also dipped in February 1871 all the pure French Flock, and found in both instances that the result was to my satisfaction.

The improvement in condition, particularly of Rams after dipping, was very marked.

I therefore do not hesitate to recommend this Dip to all Flock Masters.

It meets all the requirements of a thoroughly good and efficacious Dip, and being entirely free from Mineral Poisons, does not injure the health of the animal nor the staple.

The simplicity of its preparation for use, is efficacy and its cheapness render it a most valuable acquisition to all Estancieros in this country."

Estancia del Espartillar, June 5th, 1871.
Signed P.V.A. REID.

Sold in iron drums of 5 and 10 gallons. each by Zimmermann, Fair & Co., No. 7 Calle Bolivar, Buenos Ayres, and Calle Sarandi, Montevideo, who will give further particulars and price-list on application.
